Welcome to PAFA! As a PAFA Continuing Education (CE) student, you have joined a tradition of teaching excellence in the fine arts that has endured for over two centuries.

Please don’t hesitate to contact us for questions, concerns or course advice. The Continuing Education Programs Office is located on the 3rd floor of the Samuel M.V. Hamilton Building. Visit, call 215-972-7632, or email continuinged@pafa.edu for information and assistance. For the latest information about classes, events and special offers, visit www.pafa.edu/ce.

PAFA STUDENT PHOTO ID POLICIES & INSTRUCTIONS

Eligible students must possess a PAFA photo identification card for admittance to the school facilities. Your PAFA ID confers school access and benefits for the length of your course(s).

Benefits include free admission to the PAFA museum, 10% discount at Tableau café (first floor, Samuel M.V. Hamilton Building), and borrowing privileges at the PAFA library (fifth floor, Samuel M.V. Hamilton Building).

Eligibility Guidelines:
- Students registered for a One-Week Intensive or Multi-Week Course must obtain a PAFA student photo ID and validation sticker on their first day of class. See instructions below.
- Students registered only for a Master Class or Weekend Workshop are not eligible to obtain a PAFA photo ID. Students must bring their printed registration confirmation (web registrations) or mailed/forward registrations) to verify enrollment at West Desk upon arriving.
- Students registered for High School Intensives will have their photo IDs made as a group on their first day of class.
- Students with a PAFA photo ID from a previous semester/ year may reuse the same card with an updated validation sticker from the CE office affixed to the front. Returning students must pick up their validation sticker from the CE office (3rd floor, Samuel M.V. Hamilton Building) on their first day of class. Stickers will not be mailed.

How to Obtain Your PAFA Photo ID

1. If eligible (see above), plan to have your ID photo taken in one of the following timeslots on your first day of class. Note: Registration information (see step 2) will allow morning access until your card is made.
   - Monday – Thursday Classes: 12 – 1:30 pm & 5 – 6 pm
   - Friday – Saturday Classes: 12 – 1:30 pm
   - Sunday Classes: 12 – 1:30 pm or directly after first class

   If you are unable to make your ID during the times listed during your first week of class, please call the CE office at 215-972-7632 to set up an appointment.

2. Proceed to the West Lobby Visitor Services Desk of the Samuel M.V. Hamilton Building (through building’s side entrance on Lenfest Plaza) to present your Registration Confirmation (web registrations) or your mailed/forwarded registration information (phone/mailed registrations). Desk staff will verify your enrollment and then direct you to the photo ID facilities, where security staff will take your photo and print your card.

3. Visit the CE office (3rd floor, Hamilton Building) to obtain a Summer 2017 validation sticker for your ID. Place the sticker on the front of your card to signify that it is valid for the current semester.

Using Your ID for Building Access

Your photo ID card is necessary for floor access in the Hamilton Building. Upon exiting the elevator at your classroom floor, hold your photo ID card in front of the card reader located to the right of the lobby door. The light will change from red to green and a beep indicates the door is unlocked. Do not prop open doors. Please display your ID prominently at all times. Students must also scan their IDs at the Hamilton West Desk when entering and leaving the building. Students should present their IDs when entering or exiting the Historic Landmark Building.

Replacement IDs

There is a $5 fee to replace lost, stolen or damaged IDs. Visit the CE office to pay the fee, and then proceed to the Hamilton West Lobby Desk with your receipt.
ACADEMIC CREDIT
PAFA is accredited through the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD) and the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE). PAFA is a member of the Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design (AICAD).

Undergraduate Credit
Courses meeting contact hour requirements (30 hours minimum, not including lunch breaks) are available for 1.0, 1.5 or 3.0 undergraduate credits. If taken for credit, you may incur additional coursework, and will receive a course grade and appropriate credit that will appear on an official PAFA transcript, if requested. For an official transcript, please submit a completed Transcript Request Form (www.pafa.org/transcript) to PAFA’s School Registrar with appropriate payment. Call 215-972-2107 for more information.

Changes in credit status for Summer multiple-week classes and one-week intensives must be arranged through the CE office prior to the second class. No refunds are issued for changes from credit to non-credit.

Credit for K – 12 Educators
PAFA is approved to provide Pennsylvania Act 48 hours and New Jersey Department of Education Professional Development Credit for its courses and workshops. Courses and workshops are eligible for the number of contact hours for which they meet (excluding lunch breaks). Courses need not be taken for PAFA undergraduate academic credit to be eligible for professional development credit hours (see credit options and tuition pricing on individual courses). Educators electing to receive PA Act 48 or NJ Professional Development Credit should notify the Continuing Education Programs office when registering. Please note: PA educators must provide their six-digit Professional Educator Identification Number.

WITHDRAWALS AND REFUNDS
Withdrawals must be made in writing via letter or email (continuinged@pafa.edu) to the Continuing Education Programs office. Students withdrawing are charged an administrative fee of $30 per dropped multi-week course, $50 per Master Class or Special Program, and $15 per workshop. Tuition refunds will be adjusted according to the following schedule (less the administrative fee), unless otherwise indicated.

Multiple-Week Courses & One-Week Intensives
Prior to one week before the first class: 100%
After the above, prior to the second class: 50%
After the above: 0%

Workshops & Summer Academy for Teachers

COURSE CANCELLATIONS
PAFA reserves the right to cancel any course due to insufficient enrollment. Every reasonable effort will be made to notify students beforehand. Notification of course cancellation may occur as close as two days before the class begins. Students may choose to either transfer into another class or receive a full refund. Travel insurance is recommended for students traveling from a distance.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT ENROLLMENT
Teens in grades 9 – 12 are encouraged to enroll in PAFA’s Pre-College Programs. High school students at least 15-years-old may register in Continuing Education adult courses/programs with parents/guardian permission. A completed Parent/Guardian Consent Form is required for any student under age 18 to enroll in pre-college and adult courses. Consent forms are included with registration materials for pre-college programs, or can be downloaded from www.pafa.edu/highschool/intensives.

Younger teens are advised to register in PAFA’s Saturday Classes for Middle School Students or Summer Art Camps. Call 215-972-2054 or visit www.pafa.org/families for information.

TUITION DISCOUNTS*
- PAFA members at the Friend level and above receive a 10% tuition discount on all courses, workshops and Master Classes during the entire year of their membership. For information about becoming a member, call 215-972-2077.
- Refer a first-time Continuing Education student, and you and the student will receive a 10% tuition discount on one regular course or workshop within the current semester. (Master Classes not eligible for discount.)

* Lab/materials and locker fees are not discounted. Other Restrictions may apply. Call 215-972-7632 for details.
CLASSROOM/CAMPUS POLICIES

- Students are required to use odorless solvents, i.e. Turpenoid. NO TURPENTINE.
- Spray fixatives must be used outdoors or in the 10th floor spray booth. No indoor spraying allowed.
- Please do not empty solvents and/or paints into sinks or trashcans. Use appropriately-labeled barrels, located near each floor's utility sinks.
- Students are responsible for cleaning up after themselves before leaving class.
- Students may not touch, move or place anything on the bases or any part of the antique cast collection in the Cast Hall.
- PAFA is not responsible for artwork or other belongings left in any PAFA studio or classroom.
- Students enrolled in sculpture or printmaking courses must abide by the rules established by the Shop Managers.

For complete information about the policies, procedures, and services offered at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, including general campus policies, expanded classroom regulations, disciplinary procedures, and sexual harassment and misconduct policies and resources, visit www.pafa.org/student-handbook.

By registering for a Continuing Education class or event, you agree to abide by the policies and regulations detailed in this document. Please take the time to consult/review this important information prior to your first day of class. Failure to comply with these policies and procedures may result in disciplinary action and possible dismissal with forfeiture of tuition and fees. If you do not have access to the internet and/or require a printed copy of the student handbook, please contact the Continuing Education office at 215-972-7632.
