Historical note

Sara Carles was the younger sister of the painter Arthur B. Carles. She attended classes at the Pennsylvania Academy from 1916 to 1921. During the 1920s and 1930s she painted in a modernist, semi-abstract style strongly influenced by her brother's work. The Academy owns her painting In White of ca. 1923. After the death of her husband, Percival Craig Johns, in 1937, after just eleven years of marriage, she moved to New York and began a career as a fashion illustrator. She achieved a high degree of success in this field, and died in 1965.

Scope and Contents note

The Sara Carles Johns research materials consist of copies of photographs, paintings, and fashion illustrations. These materials were assembled in 2007 by the artist's granddaughter, Kate Johns, of Old Chatham, New York. Mrs. Johns also wrote a brief biographical essay about her grandmother. The family's collection of the original photographs, artwork and illustrations may be donated to an archival collection at some point. Mrs. Johns will notify the Academy of any donations.
