

PAFA YOUTH COUNCIL 2017/2018 Application

Youth Council is a free after school program available to students in grades 9th-12th that offers opportunities for paraprofessional experiences within PAFA's museum, including organizing events and programs for the museum's expanding teen audience.

To be considered, students must submit a completed application and, if chosen, come in for an interview with the Manager of Public Programs. From there students will be notified via email of their acceptance.

What is the Youth Council?

The Youth Council is a small group of teens who meet weekly to explore the relationship between their peer group and art museums. They will have privileged access to PAFA's art collection, staff and resources. In addition to creating, discussing and exploring art, they assist with planning and hosting events geared towards teens.

Additional program highlights include:

- Special access to PAFA staff and resources.
- Studio visits with practicing artists.
- Curating an art exhibition.
- Field trips to other cultural institutions.
- 1 year Family Membership upon completion of the program.

Important Dates:

- The Youth Council will meet on Wednesdays from 4:00 – 6:00pm from November - May.
- Applications are due Tuesday October 17th at midnight. Early applications are encouraged.
- Students will be notified of their status via email by October 19th.
- The first Youth Council meeting will take place Wednesday November 8th at 4pm.
